525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further to Evans Pass the highest point on the road by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock-cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile for which it takes a second lien as security and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road thoroughly supplied with depots repair shops stations and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon E D Morgan and Hon Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent and as there will be no competition it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is in fact a Government Work built under the supervision of Government officers and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 95 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, IN U S CURRENCY they are the cheapest security in the market being more than 15 per cent lower than U S Stocks. They pay

Supreme Court Decisions in the Georgia and Mississippi Cases

In the Supreme Court February 10th, Associate Justice Nelson announced the opinions in the case of the State of Georgia against the Hon E M Stanton Secretary of War General Grant and Major General Pope. The last named at the time the bill was filed was commanding the Third Military District composed of Georgia Florida and Alabama designated by the Act of Congress approved March [illegible] 186[illegible] for the more efficient government of the rebel States. The bill filed by the State of Georgia prayed for an injunction to restrain the defendants from carrying into effect the several provisions of these Acts and set forth the existence of Georgia as one of the States of the Union and further that in the surrender of the Confederate army in 186[illegible] at the close of the civil war the State was in the possession and enjoyment of all the rights belonging to a State in the Union under the Constitution and laws of the United States and as such was entitled to representation in both houses of Congress. The bill further sets forth that the intention and design of these Acts of Congress were apparent on their face and by their terms—namely the overthrow of the existing State Government, and the erection in its place of another not authorized by the Constitution and that in furtherance of this intent the Secretary of War, General Grant and Major General Pope, acting under orders from the President, were about setting in motion a portion of those statutes to take military possession and subvert the Government of Georgia, thereby subjecting the people thereof to military rule that the State was wholly inadequate to resist the power of the several departments and therefore insisted that protection ought to be afforded by a decree of the Supreme Court in the premises. The bill next prayed—first that the defendants might be restrained from issuing any order or doing any act or thing within the State of Georgia injurious to said State or which might be required of them by the Act of Congress, second to cause the defendants to delay the registration in Georgia, as prescribed in the last named Act third, to restrain them from administering or causing to be administered the oath or affirmation provided for in that Act, fourth to prevent an election or the returns in any such election, from being received according to the Acts in question and fifth, from holding or causing to be held, any convention as prescribed therein.

Associate Justice Nelson having set forth these premises, said in substance, that a motion had been made by counsel for defendants to dismiss the case for the want of jurisdiction and as one without precedent. It was claimed that the court had no jurisdiction in the case either on the subject matter in the bill or over the parties represented. The first ground was supported by the argument that it was a political and not a judicial question, and therefore, it was not a subject of cognizance by this court. The distinction between judicial and political questions resulted from the organization of the Government—executive legislative and judicial—and from the limitation of the powers of each under the Constitution. The judicial power was vested in the judicial department, and the political power in the other two departments. The distinction between judicial and political power was so generally admitted that the Court deemed it necessary to do nothing more than to refer to some of the authorities on the subject. They were all in one direction among them the case of Rhode Island against the State of Massachusetts. It had been supposed that this case afforded authority for hearing and deciding, as on questions connected with a bill in equity but on a close examination it would be found that this was a mistake there was a question of boundary between these two States, and not one of a political character. In the case of Florida against Georgia, the United States were allowed to intervene, being the proprietors of large portions of lands situated within the disputed boundary ceded to the United States by Spain the State of Florida also being interested as a proprietor. The case bearing most directly on this one is that of the Cherokee Nation against the State of Georgia. A bill was filed in this case and an injunction prayed for to prevent the execution of certain acts of Georgia against the Cherokee Nation. The latter claimed the right to appear in Court as a foreign nation. The acts of the Legislature, if carried into execution, would have destroyed the tribal condition of the Cherokees, and subjected them to the authority of the State. It was, therefore, decided that the Cherokees were not a foreign nation in the sense intended by the Constitution of the United States. Chief Justice Marshall said the bill was untenable on another ground, namely. It involved a political question. Associate Justice Nelson referred to several other high authorities in support of these views, and showed that political power did not belong to the Judiciary and that the Court could have no right to pronounce merely an abstract opinion of the Constitution or of State law. It might, however, decide on all statutes properly falling under judicial authority. By the second section of the third article of the Constitution of the United States it is provided

The judicial power shall extend to all cases in law and equity arising under this Constitution the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made under their authority to all cases affecting Embassadors other public Ministers and Consuls to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction to controversies to which which the United States shall be a party, to controversies between two or more States between a State and citizens of another State, between citizens of different States, between citizens of the same State claiming lands under grants of different States, and between a State or the citizens thereof and foreign States, citizens or subjects

The bill filed by the State of Georgia prayed for an injunction to restrain the defendants from executing certain parts of the acts of Congress, being apprehensive that injury to the State would thereby result but according to law and precedent, in order to entitle parties to relief a case must be properly presented for the exercise of judicial powers and the case must refer to the rights of person and property and not to political questions merely which do not belong to the judiciary either in law or equity. In view of the principles which under the Constitution and the statutes the Court had endeavored to explain the question was whether the Court could take cognizance of the question now before it. The Court was called upon to restrain the defendants, who represented the Executive Department, from putting into execution certain acts of Congress which it was claimed would overthrow the existing State Government of Georgia and establish a different one in its stead—in other words destroy the corporate existence of the State. Such is the substance of the bill. It called for the judgment of the Court on a political question and not on one involving persons and property. No question of property or threatened danger to them was presented in the bill in a form justifying judicial action by the Court. It was true the bill set forth political rights as in danger and among other things that Georgia owned certain property the State Capitol the Executive mansion and other real and personal property and that by putting these acts of Congress into execution the State would be deprived of the possession of such property. But it was apparent that this reference was only incidental and not a specific matter of remedy. The relief asked for was all for a bill different from the one [illegible] before the Court. Having for the reasons noted arrived at a conclusion it was unimportant to examine the question of jurisdiction in connection with the defendant [illegible]. The Court dismissed the bill for want of jurisdiction [illegible] the case of State of Mississippi against Secretary Stanton General Grant and Major General [illegible] involving similar questions. Chief Justice [illegible] but assented to the conclusion [illegible] that the Court had no jurisdiction.

Gen. R. E. Lee [illegible] that the [illegible] [illegible] was the first [illegible] the people [illegible] [illegible] countrymen

In that interview General Sherman told the President that the [illegible] army and navy would never consent to allow the rebels to put their feet upon the necks of loyal men. The general doubtless thought Mr Johnson needed the caution or he would not have given it to him.

Wapato Union Club

WAPATO March 18 1868

At the regular meeting of the Union voters of Wapato precinct held on the 14th inst a Club was organized styled The Wapato Union Club. By laws were adopted and a permanent organization was effected by electing S J Stott President S L Wilcox Vice President G M Raymond Secretary and J Davis Treasurer.

A Committee designated by the Chair consisting of Messrs Raymond Wilcox and McKinney reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted

Resolved That we pledge ourselves to the unalterable and unconditional support of this Union

Resolved That we believe that this Government ought to be administered by those who saved it and not by those who in times past sought to destroy it

Resolved That we believe that Congress has been and will be the proper agent and faithful exponent of the will of the people in the reconstruction of the late rebel States of the Union

Resolved That we do not believe in the treacherous apostate Andrew Johnson, nor the sham Democracy of this State, who profess to uphold him in his lawless acts and that we heartily commend the action of the House of Representatives in its passage of the following resolution, to wit

Resolved That Andrew Johnson, President of the United States be impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors

Resolved That we have full confidence in the fidelity and patriotism of General U S Grant, and in his ability and willingness to aid Congress in the great work of reconstructing and reconciling the jarring and disturbed elements of this great Republic even though opposed and thwarted by the machinations of the sham Democracy North and their rebel allies at the South and therefore we freely endorse and recommend him as the nominee of the Union party for President at the coming election

Resolved, That we are opposed to relieving ourselves from taxation by virtually repudiating the national debt or by any other swindling dodge concocted by Democratic dishonesty

Resolved That we demand close economy and rigid accountability in the administration of the financial affairs of the National and State Governments

Resolved That we owe to the gallant soldiers, who suppressed the rebellion and thereby preserved this Union a lasting debt of gratitude

Resolved, That we repudiate the despotic dogma of "once a subject always a subject"

Resolved, That the question of negro suffrage is not, and cannot be, a practical issue, in the coming canvass in this State, but is only sought to be made so by our political opponents, for dishonest purposes

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the OREGONIAN as an able truthful and energetic exponent of the principles and policy of the Union party, and as an effective agent for its advancement and ultimate triumph in this State, we will use our best endeavors to extend its circulation, and thereby promote its usefulness among us

Resolved That the foregoing proceedings be forwarded to the OREGONIAN for publication

A DEMOCRATIC HOWL ABOUT THE CALL OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION IN NEW YORK.—On Saturday February 22d, the National Democratic Committee met in Washington for the purpose of designating the time and place of holding the next Democratic National Convention

It was a matter of great importance to the mass of the people of the country that the convention should be favorably located. It was necessary in order to further the interests of the bondholders, many of whom are making great efforts to control the Democracy in the next campaign, that the convention should be held at some Eastern point, and it was equally for the interest of those oppressed by bondholders that it should not there be held

The committee met and, with but very little struggle on the part of those from the West, who might have saved it, it was decided to hold the convention in the City of New York! This fulfills the darling wishes of the bondholders represented by Belmont and Train's organ. If the glorious metropolis had claimed the convention on the ground of her grand Democratic majorities there would have been a deal of reason in the claim. But nothing of the kind was presented. The citizens of New York did not ask for the convention. It was only a plan of the bondholders who are unfortunately members of the National Committee, to aid them in carrying out their schemes

Thus far they have most cunningly managed, and their success is a warning to the people

Right under the eyes of Wall street amidst the jingle of the money bags and the rustling of the bonds, will the convention be held. All the wonderful power of gold and greenbacks will be brought to bear upon the delegates to control their action —La Crosse Democrat

JEFF DAVIS AT HOME.—A dispatch to the New Orleans Picayune, dated Jackson, Miss, January 30th says

"Ex President Davis arrived in town last evening from Vicksburg, and is the guest of Gov Humphreys. There was, of course no public demonstration in his behalf but one might have heard upon the streets, as the day waned, many inquiries in regard to the rumor of his coming the hour of arrival etc, which betokened the interest the circumstance excited. When great leaders high public functionaries or popular orators come among our people, enthusiasm curiosity or the sound of drum and cymbals naturally attract a crowd of idlers or tuft hunters. Mr Davis comes as none of these. As the grand, noble and beloved representative of the Southern people every man women and child feels a proprietary interest in him and his actions. Anxious inquiries in regard to his coming and going his condition and his welfare mean only that the people in obedience to natural feelings are solicitous of their own. They love him. They love to know that it fares well with him. Let it be told them. What matters it that Radical fanaticism cries out Egypt is wedded to her idols! If they enjoy the peace of mind which comes with the higher law and the ignoring all feeling, let us not heed them. Spoons, plate and jewels, household furniture and wearing apparel, may be swept away as with the besom of destruction, but there is no power to rob us of our hearts and feelings"

A CHURCH MADE OUT OF RAGS.—There is a church actually existing near Bergen Prussia which can contain nearly one thousand persons. It is circular within, octagonal without. The relievos without and the statues within the roof the ceiling the Corinthian capitals are all of papier maché rendered water proof by saturation in vitriol lime water whey and white of egg. We have not yet reached this audacity in the use of paper but it should hardly surprise us inasmuch as we employ the same material in private houses in steamboats and in some public buildings instead of carved decorations and plaster cornices. When Frederick II of Prussia set up a limited papier maché manufactory at Berlin in 1765 he little thought that paper cathedrals might within a century spring out of his snuff boxes by the sleight of hand of art. At present we would fashion [illegible] English who haunt cathedrals and build churches know no better. But there is no saying what we [illegible]. It [illegible] [illegible] the thing is done. When we think of a psalm sung by one thousand voices pealing through the edifice made of rags and the universal element bound down to carry our [illegible] with the speed of light it would be presumptuous to say what can be achieved by [illegible] under the training of steady old [illegible]

Dickens Interview with the President

(From the Brooklyn Union)

Mr Dickens called upon Mr Johnson yesterday. The telegraph does not tell us exactly what transpired but it was something like this:

"You see before you his Excellency may have remarked "one of the most remarkable men in the country sir. You see an impressive [illegible] to the effete despotisms of the Old World in the example which stands before you of the unbounded facilities which this country affords for the development of its citizens. In no other country could a plebeian rise to the highest position. I am a plebeian sir, and am proud of it. My father was a plebeian, and I am of plebeian origin. As I said before, sir, I have risen from a plebeian station. I was a tailor, sir and occupied a low [illegible]. Now as I said before I have risen to a high one. I am proud that I was a tailor. The first man was a tailor. The Lord Himself as you may remember I once said, was a tailor. As I have already remarked, I am an example of the manner in which citizens of this country can rise from the lowest. I have gone through the whole course of human advancement. I was once [illegible] of my native village.

Then my fellow citizens honored me with [illegible] confidence by electing me to the Legislature. I became a Congressman, sir, and Governor of my State, and Senator in the United States [illegible] Yes, sir, my voice rose with those of the [illegible] men of the land. Then, sir, I became a [illegible] a military despot in my native State. I was a first class despot, as I may have remarked to [illegible] that I was a first class country tailor and [illegible] man. I put the rebels through, as I am now putting the radicals through. That was [illegible] I was striking on the Southern end of the line." I was chosen to the second station in the nation, sir, as an acknowledgment of my devotion to the principles of [illegible] freedom. No one has suffered more for those principles than I have. I have been abused for [illegible] I have been threatened to be hanged for [illegible] I have held office for them, I have risen, as I told you before, from the tailor's shop and Alderman's seat to the highest position for [illegible] ballot made me President for them. I have reached the highest object of human ambition, sir. What more can I desire? I have swung the circle, sir. I have filled every office, I have been [illegible] every party, I have been the poor man's [illegible] I have been a State rights Democrat; I have been a partisan of slavery, I have been an abol[illegible] a radical Republican, and the leader of the Copperheads, I have given this country to the [illegible]gers and have tried to take it away from [illegible] I have seen my enemies on the verge of the Constitution, and have been there myself. I [illegible] struck at both ends of the line. I am now going at the northern end. They both fly [illegible] hurt me. As I may have remarked, no man has suffered more for my country than I have. [illegible] is a great country, and I am a living [illegible] of its greatness, having, as I remarked, risen from a plebian station to the highest position in the land, and am proud of it. I have swung [illegible] circle, and pounded both ends of the line, and now I am going to pound the British anvil, and teach the aristocrats of Europe what an American plebian, which I have told you I am proud [illegible] can do"

After Mr Johnson had finished remarks in [illegible] tenor, he consented, having received free [illegible] for his family to the Dickens readings, to [illegible] his purpose of assaulting the British lion in his interview with Mr Thornton.

REPUBLICAN ECONOMY.—The following [illegible]esting proceedings took place in the House of Representatives on the 24th of January. We [illegible] from the Globe of the 25th:

Mr Washburne, of Illinois. To [illegible] that bill I desire to present a report, in the [illegible] of tabular statements, which I desire to [illegible] printed. I wish, also, to state that my [illegible] in having this bill recommitted, is that the Committee on appropriations may [illegible] connection with the revised estimates which [illegible] been sent in by the Secretary of the Navy. His original estimates for the next fiscal year [illegible]ed to between forty seven and forty-eight [illegible] dollars

Mr Butler. He still having in his [illegible] expended $15,060,000.

Mr Washburne, of Illinois. Yes, sir, [illegible] being, as I understand, $15,000,000 of the [illegible]priations for the Navy Department yet [illegible]ed. The appropriations embraced in this bill, which I have just reported, amounts to less than nineteen million dollars, which amount the committee think sufficient to meet every exi[illegible] the public service in that department, and to maintain the navy in all efficiency. By this bill, reported by a Republican committee of a [illegible]can Congress, the estimates originally sent in by a Democratic Secretary of the Navy of a Democratic Administration, are reduced from forty seven million dollars to eighteen or nineteen millions

Mr Spalding. It should be stated, in [illegible] to a high officer of the Government, that the Secretary of the Navy has revised his original estimates and reduced them to $25,000,000.

Mr Washburne, of Illinois. I was about to state that the Secretary of the Navy having originally sent in estimates amounting to more than forty seven millions, has now sent in a revision of those estimates, cutting them down to twenty-five million dollars. That the committee may examine the bill in connection with these revised estimates, I have moved the recommitment of the bill. I move also that the tabular statement which I now present be printed as a report accompanying the bill

The motion was agreed to.

A Democratic Speech

During the late campaign in New Hampshire, the "Democratic" party employed Henry Clay Dean of Iowa to aid them in their canvass. The following extract from one of his speeches shows the style which the Eastern Copperheads delight in:

> If I could have my way, I would place Jeff Davis in Congress, where he rightfully belongs; then I would go to Concord, take all those miserable battle flags from the State House, and make a bonfire of them in the State House yard. Then I would go all through the North and destroy all the monuments and grave stones erected to the memory of the soldiers; in short I would put out of sight everything which reminds us that we ever had a war with our Southern brethren. I do not know as I would hang one legged and one armed soldiers, but I would pray to God to get them out of the way as soon as possible.

This goes a little ahead of a "Democratic" speech which was recently delivered in this place, in which the orator denounced the soldiers of the Union as "miserable wretches;" but the animus of the Portland speech was precisely that of the oratorial efforts of Henry Clay Dean in New Hampshire. All patriots recognize the truth that the late war for the Union was a holy and just war, and that those who took part in it struggled, and those who perished or were mutilated in it suffered, in as good a cause as was ever defended by man. Political fanatics whose hearts are dyed in grain with malice, or vitiated, corrupted and gangrened to the very core with treason, may condemn them, but their country and the universal feeling of mankind will hold them in grateful remembrance forever.

THE STRUGGLE NOW GOING ON.—On the 27th day of December, 1860, Senator Hammond, of South Carolina, wrote to a Northern friend as follows:

"You see what I have often told you, that slavery is stronger than the Union. I do not think that there is the least chance of reconstructing the confederation on the former basis. We will have no other Union than one in which the Slave Power shall be largely and permanently predominant."

In plain terms, we, two hundred and fifty thousand slaveholders, will have no Union unless we can govern it.

The great strife, which now agitates this nation to its very foundation stones, proceeds from the principle enunciated by Senator Hammond seven years ago. The leading men of the South, aided by their "Northern allies," adopting this sentiment, and part of his language, virtually declare, "we will have no other Union than the one in which the old Slave Oligarchy shall rule it [illegible], as it has done heretofore."

The Court of Impeachment resumed its sitting on Monday, the 23d. The telegraphic dispatches furnish us a synopsis of the answer to the articles of impeachment, put in by Johnson's attorneys. The motion for delay is not likely to be granted. The mills of the gods have begun to grind, and if the people's will be obeyed, the power and the perfidy of Andrew Johnson will be ground "exceeding fine" before they stop. With all the protestations of his innocence, is it not remarkable and suspicious that the President is so extremely anxious for delay, and that he should threaten to resign to escape a trial. The conscious criminal will break jail and run if he can; but no honest or innocent man, accused of crime, with all the proofs on either side patent and accessible, ever sought to escape an immediate trial. Andrew Johnson's efforts to avoid trial may justly be viewed as inadvertent confessions of guilt.

The Sentinel-on-the-Border is a title of a new candidate for the patronage of the peace Democracy. It is published at Louisville, and bids fair to compete sharply with Brick Pomeroy's paper, which is the favorite of the "white man's party." The character of the new candidate and its claims on the Democracy, can be inferred from the following, which is a sample of its columns:

"Christ was the first Democrat, and the twelve white Apostles the first converts to Democracy! The Democratic creed is spread upon every page of sacred, moral and natural history. It is the sister of Masonry, going hand in hand, to plant the seed of fraternity and good will among men! It is the champion of the rights of the many against the tyranny and power of the few. So was Christ! It is the friend of the poor and oppressed, and sympathizes with the weak and powerless. So did Christ! It seeks to build up not to tear down. This was Christ's mission! It asks justice for all men, and equality among the brotherhood. So did Christ! Its mission is for the salvation of the white race. Such was Christ's! He did not affiliate with the negro! He worked with white men for the benefit of white men! Of all his Apostles and associates not one was a nigger!"

A DEMOCRAT IN DEFENSE OF GRANT.—A late number of the New York Citizen contains a Washington correspondence over the familiar signature of "Miles O'Reilly," in which allusion is made to one of many calumnies by means of which the enemies of General Grant are vainly striving to destroy his popularity and prevent his becoming a candidate for the Presidency. The writer of this correspondence, General Halpine, is no friend of the Republican party, and therefore may be considered as a witness whose political bias, if he has any, is against General Grant. He says:

> It is altogether probable, so far as I can now see, that the Citizen may be obliged to oppose the election of General Grant in consequence of the platform upon which the Radicals are endeavoring to place him; but it is no part of the Democratic creed, as it was taught to me in the old-time councils of Tammany Hall, to fight with poisoned arrows. Let me, therefore, after full examination, denounce all these recent charges affecting Gen. Grant's habits as utter and damnable lies.

The "lay reader" and "scholar of nice literary discrimination," of the Confederate organ here, when requested to explain what are the "time-honored principles of the Democratic party," replies, "Ye shall know them by their fruits." These are some of the fruits: Nullification, conspiracy, secession, war, a half million lives lost, an immense national debt, financial embarrassment, etc., through chapter upon chapter—every one of them the legitimate fruit of Democracy. "I thank thee, Jew, for teaching me that word." The American people are surfeited of those sorts of fruits.

The Mendocino (Cal.) Democrat recently had an article entitled, "The Lost Cause must be Won." That is, also, the motto of the Democracy of Oregon. They would blot out all the work accomplished by our armies and reinaugurate the damnable doctrine of States rights, the right to secede, and to strangle liberty and human rights at the nod of slaveocracy. How many soldiers, how many who lost relatives and friends in the late struggle for the Union and a republican government, will join in the effort to win the "Lost Cause?"

The Record of Monday says: "The Wigwam, or Grant Club House, will be open to night for the first time. The roof was on, the floors laid, and seats up, on Saturday. To-day windows and doors will be put in place, fires will be kept up to dry the room somewhat, and dry saw-dust will be placed on the floors. Twenty feet of the further end is raised as a platform, on which a band, glee clubs, etc., can be placed. Let us have a full house to-night to hear Dave Logan, who will sustain his great reputation as a political orator."

The stage [illegible] worse than the usual condition at this season of the year, and, in consequence, it will be impossible to change off to the short time schedule on the 1st of April.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 24.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—In the House, the proceedings were unimportant.

The Senate, at half-past one resolved itself into a Court of Impeachment.

CHICAGO, March 22.—A Republican special says great interest is felt over the proceedings in the impeachment trial. To-morrow, it is believed, the President's counsel will ask for further delay, which will not be granted. The House managers will have their replication ready to be presented on Tuesday, so as to proceed with the trial on Wednesday. The impression gains ground that after using all dilatory measures possible, when the Senate refuses to grant further delay, the President will tender his resignation, claiming that he cannot have a fair trial.

The Impeachment Trial.

CHICAGO, March 24.—After the organization of the Senate as a court of impeachment, Davis submitted a resolution to suspend the trial till all states shall be represented; lost—Davis only voting in its favor.

Stanbery stated that himself and brother counsel had been engaged every hour since the court last met, preparing the answer, and he regretted that longer time had not been granted, but submitted the answer which they had prepared.

Judge Curtis read the answer to the first article. In response the President quotes the original act establishing the office of Secretary of War, and says Stanton was appointed by President Lincoln and not by him after he became President, and becoming satisfied that said Stanton was doing the public service great injury, he removed him under the Constitution. He denies that Stanton, when he removed him, was in legal possession of the War Office. He denies that he ever contemplated action contrary to law. He denies that his act in removing Stanton constituted high crime and misdemeanor in office. The remainder of the answer to the 1st article consists of a long argument against the Tenure of Office Bill, and in favor of the President's right to remove Cabinet officers at pleasure.

Stanbery then took Curtis' place, and read the answer to the 2d article. He denies all the charges in this article, and says that at the time he issued the order appointing Lorenzo Thomas, there was a vacancy in the War Office. For answer to the 3d article, respondent denies that he made any appointment to the War Office, but simply authorized General Thomas to act ad interim. For answer to the 4th article, he denies that he ever conspired with General Thomas, or other persons, to prevent Stanton from holding the office of Secretary of War. He further denies having authorized any force to be used in removing Stanton. The President dwells on this at length. He denies all the allegations. For answer to the 5th article, respondent denies having hindered the execution of the Tenure of Office act, either in the city of Washington or elsewhere, and in his reply to the 4th article he denies the sufficiency of the charge. In answer to the 6th article, respondent denies that he attempted to possess himself of any of the property of the United States. For answer to the 7th article he denies all the charges therein, and states that the allegations are insufficient. For answer to the 8th article, he denies all intention of violence, and says he simply wanted to get the matter before the courts.

In answer to the 9th article, he proceeds to detail the interview between himself and Gen. Emery, and denies having requested Gen. Emery or any other officer to violate or disobey the law, or any rule for the regulation of the army. He denies having said or done anything at any interview with Gen. Emery which can be construed as a high crime or misdemeanor.

Mr. Evarts then proceeded to answer the 10th article. It starts out with an allusion to the Philadelphia Convention. The President goes on to say that the Convention adopted a declaration of principles, and appointed a delegation to wait upon the President and present said declaration. He then details the interview which took place in the White House between himself and the delegation. He says his speech on that occasion was incorrectly reported, and that extracts quoted in the article in question, by the House of Representatives, are not parts of his speech. He makes the same statement with regard to the Cleveland speech, and also denies the correctness of passages quoted in the article from his St. Louis speech. In a further answer to this article he protests that he has not been unmindful of the high duties of his office. He denies having endeavored to bring Congress into contempt, and asserts that during his official career he always acknowledged the authority and legality of Congress. He claims that all his speeches were delivered in the exercise of his right as an American citizen, for which he cannot be questioned.

In answer to Article 11, he denies that in a public speech in Washington he said Congress was not a lawful Congress, and would not be till the Southern States were represented. He insists on being permitted to use freedom of speech and opinion.

At 3 P. M. the reading of the President's answer was concluded. This document makes about five newspaper columns. Boutwell, from the managers, requested that the managers be allowed a copy of the President's answer. He said the Board will be ready with its replication at one o'clock to-morrow.

After consultation with the House managers, Evarts then rose and said that if the Court would allow, he would request that the President and counsel be allowed thirty days in which to prepare for trial.

Senator Howard moved that this motion lie on the table till after the managers have filed their replication. Bingham said the managers were ready to argue the question now, whereupon Howard withdrew his motion, and General Logan, of the managers, argued against the motion. Evarts followed Logan and argued at length in favor of further length of time. Wilson, of Massachusetts, argued against granting the motion. Stanbery closed the argument with a strong appeal for further time.

The Whisky Tax.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The Tribune's special says the Ways and Means Committee have finally determined to retain the two dollar tax on whisky.

The Confederate Debt.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The Herald publishes two communications signed William Morgan, in behalf of the coin and cotton bond-holders, dated at London, arguing against violent acts of intervention on the part of the United States, between the Southern States in rebellion and bond-holders, compelling the former to repudiate their loans made in favor of the Confederate Government, and saying that the credit of the Southern States is utterly annihilated by this act of forced repudiation, and they won't be able to borrow a shilling in Europe till they are allowed to pay this debt. He urges that if this were done the credit of the North and South would stand much higher in Europe, and 5-20's would rule much higher. He justifies the European capitalists in making these loans, and argues that what may one day be sauce for the goose who lent the South money on bonds, may another day become sauce for the gander, that they lent money to the North under the idea that they would be repaid their principal and interest in gold, for aiding to crush the South."

A ministerial crisis at Athens has resulted in the withdrawal of Morantine and the formation by Bulgaris of a new Cabinet. The new administration has issued a proclamation to the people, which characterizes the forthcoming parliamentary elections as destined to express the will of the people, and enjoins the utmost regard for the maintenance of law and order, so that all aspirants of Greeks and sympathizers for their suffering companions may be attended and displayed without violation to the Constitution and interruption of peace. The proclamation is equally emphatic with respect to assistance due to suffering Cretan families.

It completes the absorption of Poland as an integral portion of the Empire.

Additional particulars of the state of affairs in Japan are received. The country was quiet. The rebellion of the Tycoon had been effectually suppressed, and there was reason to hope for a strong government in connection with the Mikado or Spirit Emperor.

ROME, March 22.—The Pope gave a very gracious reception to Admiral Farragut and his suit yesterday. The Admiral will remain at Rome for a month in consequence of a severe abscess on the leg.

FLORENCE, 22.—Garibaldi has written to Minister Marsh, declining to act as agent of the United States Government.

VIENNA, March 22.—[illegible] in this city were made over the recent action of the Reichsrath on the civil marriage bill, which is regarded as [illegible] annulling the Concordat. Yesterday, when it became known that the Upper House had [illegible] to defer the passage of the bill, there was great [illegible] among the people, and last night the city was illuminated generally.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—The Union Primary election yesterday passed off very quietly, and a full delegation in favor of Grant for President was elected to the State Convention.

The Independent Dispatch has again changed hands. Volney E. Howard has gone out, and Lauchheim, of the Occidental and Vanguard and formerly of the Marysville Express, has assumed editorial management of the paper.

Benj. Jansen was fined $100 to-day for assaulting a man with a knife.

A spiritual paper is about to be established at Oakland.

A little boy about six years of age, named Charles Swain, fell into a well on San Pablo road Friday last, and was drowned.

Oakland is infested with a swarm of thieves and burglars, recent arrivals from the East.

S. V. Bixby, a well known note and general broker was arrested last night by detectives Lees and Watkins on a charge of forgery. It grows, in some manner, out of a similar charge against S. R. Nichols, on which he was arrested and which is pending in the Police Court now.

There was a large meeting last night of the friends of the Women's Co-operative Organization at Union Hall, on Howard street.

Twenty minutes after 11 A. M. to-day, quite a severe shock of an earthquake was experienced in this city. No damage done.

A company has incorporated with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, to manufacture upholstery, with elastic springs in place of hair, pulu, etc.

A telegram from Washington announces the decision by the Supreme Court of the case of Grisar vs. McDowell, whereby the claim of the Government to the military reservation at Black Point, in this city is confirmed.

According to our latest advices from China (Hong Kong, December 10,) "the war in the north between the Imperial and Rebel forces is being vigorously waged." To show how vigorously we are told that a great battle at Shantung promontory resulted in the defeat of the rebel army, which lost eighty thousand men. But subsequently the Imperialists were defeated in their turn "in several severe engagements, with heavy loss." A loss that may be described as "heavy" in comparison to that of eighty thousand men, which seems not to amount to much in China, must have been heavy indeed. Perhaps it is safe to put it at five times eighty thousand, more or less, or four hundred thousand. This Chinese rebellion has been going on for somewhat more than eighteen years, during which it has been estimated that from thirty to forty million lives have been sacrificed. If it continues for twenty years longer—and there seems no special reason why it should not, unless foreign intervention puts a stop to it—even the five hundred millions of Chinese population will begin to be perceptibly thinned out. Should the Chinese persist in destroying each other on such a scale of wholesale slaughter as in the recent battle at Shantung promontory, the Russian Czar may be constrained, if only by motives of humanity, to step over the "Great Wall" erected as a protection against Tartar incursions, to overrun the Empire and sack Pekin, like Genghis Khan in 1215.

NEW STORE—NEW GOODS.—The undersigned would respectfully call the attention of the ladies of Portland to their new and complete stock of goods, selected with special reference to the Portland trade. Our motto is one price, and no goods misrepresented to effect sales.

CLARKE, HENDERSON & COOK.

THE STEAMER JOHN L. STEPHENS not lost, but has arrived at Portland, and brought to KOHN & FISHEL, the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Spring and Summer Suits, the latest style, and of the best material that has been offered in this city for years. The Ladies have not been forgotten. They will find by an inspection of the stock just arrived, that their wants have been anticipated by a selection of dry goods, the equal of which is not often presented here.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

DIVIDEND, JAN'Y 1, 1868,

FORTY PER CENT UPON ALL POLICIES THAT have been in force four years, and payable on the anniversaries of the renewals of said policies.

This Company in declaring its Dividend, does so upon THE PERCENTAGE SYSTEM, thus each insurer, WHETHER HE IS A RICH MAN OR A POOR MAN, A PROMINENT CITIZEN OR AN HUMBLE CITIZEN, SHARES ALIKE.

PREMIUM SYSTEM.

CASH, WHEN REQUIRED. NOTES ARE, HOWEVER, TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums, thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually CANCEL THE NOTES.

How different this is from a Cash Company who exact all Cash, under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy holder, when he is unable to pay his renewal premium.

REMEMBER

That the "OLD MANHATTAN" never assumes or promises Extravagant Dividends to induce insurers to come and insure with them. Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well managed and first-class Companies, and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future. It never vilifies the character of other Companies to accumulate business. THE MANHATTAN'S oldest insurers are its best advocates. The business of the Company is conducted with ECONOMY!

This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future.

From the following table, taken from the New York Insurance Reports of 1867, it will be seen that our percentage of expenses to receipts are very much less than any Companies enumerated below.

Expenses on each $100 of Receipts:

Manhattan Life	13 16
Guardian "	14 39
North America	15 44
Mutual Life	17 09
Continental	20 64
Germania	22 11

This Company insures upon all the most approved plans, AND AT THE SAME RATES CHARGED BY ALL FIRST CLASS COMPANIES. APPLICANTS, before insuring, would do well to examine our Circulars, which can be had upon application either by mail or otherwise, to EXPLANATIONS [illegible] — It was [illegible] stand on the wharf yesterday and [illegible] persistent efforts of shippers to get their freights [illegible]. Of course every body wanted [illegible] take [illegible]. Captain [illegible] was [illegible] water. His vessel already [illegible] he had intended to take on board [illegible] receive a very few [illegible] of wheat at Springville. Mr. A. would [illegible] way [illegible] just [illegible] The moment he was released Mr. B. would seize the captain by the button [illegible] want. The captain would gently intimate that he would not take another [illegible] but that didn't avail and in the end he would expostulate and take just one more [illegible]. Excitedly [illegible] swearing and laughing by turns. The Captain dodged here and there but the shippers [illegible] stuck to him [illegible] him out [illegible] till he swore almost as terribly as our army in Flanders. The pressure, however, at last came to an end [illegible] till the Fannie Troup came along side and [illegible] fast to her back. Even then an enterprising shipper [illegible] getting just one more load and the sacks kept sliding down the chute till the very moment of casting off the lines.

SIDEWALK OBSTRUCTIONS.—What business has everybody to make permanent standing places of the sidewalks for wood piles, empty boxes, hardware, grindstones, plows, lumber, stoves and a thousand and one other articles? How many blocks are there on Front and First streets, where there are not from one to half a dozen parties who habitually obstruct the sidewalks with such stuff, in defiance of city ordinances and in utter disregard to the safety of foot passengers? How many men might the police put to court this morning should they start out with a determination to enforce the ordinance against obstructing sidewalks? Passing goods over the sidewalk is one thing and leaving empty boxes and all sorts of [illegible] things on the sidewalk for days and weeks to save the expense of store room, is altogether another thing. Not less than half a dozen painful accidents have [illegible] within a short time to persons who in the night time, have tried the desperate experiment of walking the sidewalks of our principal streets. Crossing the [illegible] bar in a gale, on a log raft, would be a safer job any dark night than an attempt to walk rapidly up or down Front street.

PASSENGERS FOR PORTLAND.—The steamship Continental sailed from San Francisco, for Portland, yesterday at noon, with the following list of passengers: J Henry Salby, A P Brayman, Chas Fishel, Mrs G Smith, Mrs C Levy, Mrs M Hubbard, J Mayer and son, J D Eaton, B F Howell, M S Saxe, R D White, Geo Plavel, Thos Crel, H Sloan, F McCann, D L Water, John White, G S [illegible], I Barman, M Seller, F Shelinger, E N Ouimette, Wm Beck, G H Clark, H H Johnston, W G Elmore, Col Brackett, U S A, Arthur Haine, J King, G O Wilson, B B Knapp, John Cadwallader, K M Burton, S Alexander, B Kennedy, S F Leonard, John Foshay, S B Abbott, H A Vanbrugg, J B Nichols and family, Miss M F Dinsmore, J S Tucker, Mrs F A Hay and daughter, Mrs Perrault, W W Thompson, B Reynolds, Thos Prather, Wm Young, F A Foster, R T Lawless and wife, R S Coyle, C [illegible], L H Wakefield, H F Alders, Mrs Freidenrich and boy, Mrs C C Fox, A F Hillman, J H Smith, R Deal and wife, J A Ripperton, F Wallace, 30 others in the cabin and 105 in the steerage.

PASSENGERS FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The following is a list of passengers for San Francisco per steamship Ajax: Mrs B L James and 2 children, B F Fuller, wife and child, Edward Wallace, wife and 2 children, E Dusenbery, wife and child, Mrs N Brown, 2 children and servant, N M Bell, Thos Charman, E Cahalin, N Dusenbery, S M Walt, L Sloss, S S Thompson, M Michaelis, [illegible] Lever, Capt Ankeny, wife and daughter, G A [illegible], J S Lawson, Miss H Lebenbaum, D B Mandel, S [illegible], S Clayburg, Mrs L White and child, F Wagner, M Feinen, H Seymour, L Goldsmith, M A Stratton, Jos Meyer, K M Frank, S Houser, S Burkeospell, Mrs E [illegible] and child, A McNary, K Brassfield, M French, [illegible], Sam Levy, H S Hermen, Miss A Phillips, [illegible], S Ackerman, Col West, (Wells, Fargo & Co's [illegible]) and 25 others.

THE PLAZA.—Now that the Spring is beginning to call [illegible] attention to the Plaza, its dilapidated condition is more noticeable than ever. The grass looks fresh and green and nice enough, but the ragged and dead trees [illegible] there like so many ghosts, and give one an impression like looking upon a once blasted, blackened and weed [illegible] ruin. The Plaza is decidedly not ornamental, and is decidedly not creditable to the taste of the City [illegible]. If they do not propose to improve it, they had [illegible] rent it out to some enterprising sheep herder, or [illegible], better still, divide it into lots and let people [illegible] habitable houses on it. In a short time it will be [illegible] to plant trees this year.

SHIP BUILDING.—Some days since, we published an item in substance that the ship carpenters of this city [illegible] to effect an arrangement with capitalists, by which the latter should furnish money enough to buy [illegible] for one or more freight vessels—the carpenters agreeing to do the work and be joint owners. Since [illegible] we have learned that the St Helens Milling Co. are [illegible] to go into an agreement to furnish all the lumber [illegible], and to take stock in the vessels to the amount of the lumber's value. It only remains to find some [illegible] who will furnish the money to purchase the fastenings, sails, rigging, etc., and then a vessel will soon be upon the stocks.

UNPAID LETTERS.—The following letters are retained in the Post Office for pre-payment: Charles Judd, Victoria; Mrs. Ellen Sposito, San Francisco; Mrs. Lottie [illegible], Virginia City, M T; George Manwell, Victoria; Mrs Anna Grobbs, Wilbur, Og'n; Charles Green, [illegible] W. T.; John McHenry, Philadelphia, Pa; [illegible], San Francisco; Messrs Mitchell & Rosen[illegible], Independence, Og'n; Messrs Brown & Kelly, [illegible]; J. Leonard, Oak Point; S. Cinkidel, Victoria; [illegible], Sommerville; Harrisburg, Herrman Gug[illegible], Helena, M T; R. Dinsmore, Umatilla.

UNION MEETING AT EAST PORTLAND.—The public meeting at East Portland, in aid of the plank road to Switzler's landing, and steam ferry across the Columbia river, will take place at 7 o'clock this evening, in the Odd Fellows' building. The meeting of the Grant Club has been [illegible] to accommodate this meeting. Delegates from [illegible] and Clarke county, W. T., are expected to be [illegible]. The ferry boat will run during the evening [illegible] parties from this side to return. All those [illegible] in the scheme should attend.

PRODUCE.—The following were the arrivals of produce [illegible] day: Per Senator, 5 rolls leather, 6 hf bbls dried [illegible], 916 qr sks flour, 3 gunnies bacon, 14 boxes eggs, [illegible] linseed oil, 20 sks oil cake meal, 1 gunny oats, [illegible] feed. Per Wenat, 454 qr sks flour, 6 dressed hogs, [illegible] chickens, 1 case salmon. Per Alert, 53 hf bbls dried apples, 200 bags wheat, 710 sks oats, 400 qr sks [illegible], 11 cases unspecified produce, 4 bales woolen goods, [illegible] fowls, and 5 gunnies bacon.

[illegible] LIBRARY.—The following new books have just been added to the Portland Library: Military History of U. S. Grant, by Badeau; A Stormy Life, by Fullerton; Napoleon and Blucher, by Muhlbach; Count Mi[illegible], by Mundt; Woman's Wrongs, by Gail Hamilton; Echoes from Kentucky, by Nasby; The White [illegible], by Melville; Red Cross; or, Young America in England and Wales.

HURT BY FALLING.—A little girl, daughter of Mr. Graham, who resides in the northern part of the city, received a severe hurt yesterday by falling from a see-saw, at the North Portland school house. She fell upon [illegible] and shoulders and received such a shock that during the remainder of the day she was delirious; but [illegible] are felt but that she will soon recover.

THE OLD WRECK.—As the Almatia was towed out from the dock, yesterday, she bumped upon the old wreck, just below the lower end of Couch & Flanders' wharf. The [illegible], however, served only to check her speed [illegible], and then she moved off. Several times within the last year or two, the steamers have also hit this old wreck.

JOSH WAS RIGHT.—Josh Billings has said a good many true and good things but never a truer one than the following: "Money has dun one thing for the world that [illegible] else could hav dun so well—It has developed the [illegible]." There are several very marked illustrations of Josh's proverb in this city. The development is perfect and enormous.

NOTHING HEARD FROM SALEM.—We received no news from Salem last evening, nor did any private telegrams come through, so far as we can learn. This is a little [illegible], as we had a well understood arrangement to have intelligence sent. We can only conjecture that there was something the matter with the "means of communication."

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The following is a list of the freight for San Francisco per bark Almatia which left here yesterday: 9,778 qr sks flour, 114 sks middlings, 4,274 bags wheat, 300 hf bbls dried apples, 3 bbls [illegible] and 75 bbls salmon. Of the above, seventy five tons of wheat will be loaded at Springville.

THE ALMATIA.—The bark Almatia left her dock yesterday afternoon in tow by the Fannie Troup for Springville, where she will take on board seventy five tons of wheat. On Friday, the [illegible] will tow her to Astoria and then she will go to sea at once, if the weather be favorable.

IRISH RELIEF MEETING.—We are informed that on Monday evening next, a mass meeting of the Irish citizens of Portland, will be held for the purpose of starting a fund for the relief of Irish prisoners in English jails.

TEMPERANCE FAIR.—The friends of temperance, and everybody [illegible] may be friendly to [illegible] Lodge will please remember the fair to-night at [illegible] Hall on First street.

BASE BALL PRACTICE.—We are requested to announce that members of the Pioneer and Spartan clubs will meet for practice at 4 o'clock this evening on the grounds at East Portland.

THE LIVE YANKEE.—The bark Live Yankee cleared for Portland on Monday and probably sailed yesterday from San Francisco.

[illegible].—There is a dispatch at the telegraph office for C. Beal, Esq.

NEW GOODS—MERCHANT TAILORING.—Isaac Barman, of the firm of Barman Bros., is en route for home by the steamship Continental. He is bringing with him a large stock of ready made clothing and furnishing goods which will be opened next Monday. He is also bringing with him a fashionable cutter and several tailors, and immediately upon their arrival will open a first class [illegible] establishment.

The Southern mail service is very expensive to the nation at large. Before the war there was every year a deficiency in the Postoffice Department, but [illegible] reform was commenced and Southern offices were [illegible] the service became self supporting, and even [illegible] revenue to the Government. During the [illegible] fiscal year, however, it again ran [illegible] behind. Massachusetts [illegible] all expenses [illegible] ton.

A bill has been [illegible] providing that [illegible] Vice President of the United States [illegible] death, [illegible] and [illegible] shall expire before the [illegible] continue [illegible] until the end of [illegible] the office of [illegible].

CLERK.—Mr. [illegible] is taking a splendid article of [illegible] at the [illegible] opposite Doctor [illegible].

The Pain Killer Abroad.

The following correspondence will show something of the estimation in which Perry Davis' Pain Killer is held on the shores of the Mediterranean. It is not surprising that a medicine that receives such testimonials as this from abroad, should find a well sustained and increasing appreciation at home.

U. S. CONSULATE, Tunis, Dec 27, 1865.

To the Proprietors of Davis' Pain Killer, Providence, R. I.—Gentlemen: The enclosed has just been received from my friend Tulin, late Consul General of Norway and Sweden and of Prussia in this place. No comment is needed. Truly yours, AMOS PERRY

TUNIS, December 16, 1865.

Dear Sir:—Accept thanks for this the supply of Davis' "Pain Killer." This medicine has often relieved me of serious indisposition, and I would not on any account consent to be without it, both for myself and my family.

I have recommended it to my late colleagues and friends in Tunis and, at my request, one of the largest druggists in this city has sent an order to New York to meet the demand in this place.

Yours truly, G. A. TULIN,
Ex Consul Gen'l of Sweden, Norway & Prussia in Tunis.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels, Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive only after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

The Name of God in Forty-eight Languages.—As Louis Burger the well known author and philologist was walking in the Avenue des Champs Elysees he heard a familiar voice exclaiming: "Buy some nuts of a poor man sir twenty for a penny!" He looked up and recognized his old barber.

"What, are you selling nuts?" said he.

"Ah, sir, I have been unfortunate."

"But this is no business for a man like you."

"Oh, sir, if you could only tell me of a nothing better to do," returned the barber with a sigh.

Burger was touched. He reflected a moment then tearing a leaf from his memorandum book he wrote for a few moments and handed it to the man, saying "Take this to a printing office and have a hundred copies struck off. Here is the money to pay for it. Get a license from the Prefecture of the Police and sell them at two cents a copy, and you will have bread on the spot. The strangers who visit Paris cannot refuse this tribute to the name of God, printed in so many different ways."

A few days after Burger met the Barber.

"Well," said he "has the holy name of God brought you good luck?"

"Yes, indeed, sir, I sell on an average one hundred copies a day at two cents each or two dollars; but the strangers are generous some give me ten cents and others twenty. I have even received half a dollar for a copy so that, all told I am making five dollars a day."

"Five dollars a day?"

"Yes, sir; thanks to your kindness."

"The devil!" thought Burger, as he walked away. "If I were not a literary man, I would turn peddler or publisher: there is nothing so profitable as selling the learning or wit of others."

Discoveries at Jerusalem.—Lieut Warren writes to the Palestine Explorative Committee in England, under date of Jerusalem December 12 that the work of excavation in that city is going on rapidly. He has discovered that the underground passage running from the Huldah Gate in the south wall of the Harem below the mosque of the Aksa up to the platform itself of the Harem has no branches. At its northern end there is on the east side a vaulted chamber twenty-two feet square and on the west unimportant waterducts five feet below the present surface, and probably connected with the tank beneath. These ducts he believes to be older than the Aksa mosque. He thinks that the Tyropoean Valley will be found to sweep round eastward and to descend to the "Virgin's Fount" and thus divide Moriah from Ophel—a fact never before suspected.

The excavations in the upper part of this valley indicate the actual existence of the brook which Hezekiah stopped or concealed when the city was besieged by Sennacherib. This stream would appear to be still forcing its way along its old channel at the depth of more than sixty feet beneath the present surface. A mile west of the city, between it and the ancient village of Nephtoah, Mr Warren has explored at some personal risk, a remarkable cleft which descends into the earth to the depth of more than one hundred and fifty feet, and which may not improbably be one of the sources of the water supply of Jerusalem. On the other hand in the valley of the Kedron a mile and a half south of the city and five hundred yards below the Well of Job a well has been excavated apparently for the first time which proves to contain passages staircases and other contrivances which Mr Warren thinks will prove to be connected with the water system of the ancient city.

Franklin's Wife.—To put on the her husband's interests she attended his little shop where she bought rags sewed pamphlets, folded newspapers and sold the few articles in which he dealt, such as ink, papers lampblack blacking and other stationery. At the same time she was an excellent housekeeper and [illegible] self taught her somewhat [illegible] order her band to be economical [illegible] Franklin was [illegible] which his [illegible] a long time she [illegible] the work of the house without [illegible]

Nevertheless she knew how to [illegible] at proper times. Franklin tells us that [illegible] years after his marriage his breakfast was bread and milk, which he ate out of a two penny earthen vessel with a pewter spoon. One morning on going down to breakfast he found upon the table a beautiful china bowl from which his bread and milk was eaten with a silver spoon by its side which had cost more than our currency $10. When he expressed his astonishment at this unwonted splendor Mrs Franklin only remarked that she thought her husband deserved a silver spoon and china bowl as much as any of his neighbors.

Franklin [illegible] printer [illegible] of [illegible] presided at her husband's liberal table as gracefully as when he ate his breakfast of bread and milk from a two penny bowl.—Parton's Life of Franklin.

Besieged by Famished Cats.—It is said that an enterprising Yankee having bought an island in the Ohio river, has stocked the same with black cats, intending to go into the fur trade. This reminds us of a similar experiment which was made many years ago by a gentleman who resided in Maryland. The idea struck him that the fur trade was so lucrative it would be much better to raise animals nearer home than the regions of the North, and accordingly purchased an island in the Chesapeake Bay stocking it with the blackest of black cats. He paid extravagant prices for the black felines and all that was in the adjacent country were [illegible] trapping [illegible] which were immediately disposed of and sent to that resort.

The gentleman found the cats were prolific and was so compelled [illegible] a boat [illegible] [illegible] At [illegible] to an easy [illegible] resort until whole legions of black [illegible] ever the island home devouring everything [illegible] shape of food and the men found it impossible [illegible] the requisite amount of nourishment. At last was determined that one of the men should take a boat and returning to the mainland report the alarming state of affairs. During the absence of the messenger the cats became exceedingly [illegible] and the remaining party fearing [illegible] locked himself up in the cabin and prepared for a siege.

The enemy emboldened by this display of fear and urged on by hunger surrounded the house climbed up the sides staring in at the affrighted man through the windows and apertures keeping up the while the most hideous caterwauling. He carefully stopped up every crevice save the chimney but hearing and seeing an ominous fall of soot which disclosed a determination on the part of the besieging force to effect a surprise he closed that opening also and Micawber like waited for something to turn up. For two days and nights he was kept in this singular prison with the dreadful howl of famishing cats ever resounding in his ears and with savage eyes glaring at him continually.

At length a party arrived with guns and succeeded in succoring the man from his truly awful position but so numerous were the cats so fierce their aspect and threatening their demeanor that both the rescuers and rescued were glad to leave this pandemonium of jet black cats gaunt and fierce as they were from starvation. The animals we believe all perished and thus ended one of the most extensive cat rearing ventures ever recorded. The individual who has started a cat plantation on the island in the Ohio river may have the benefit of this experience related above free of cost.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL. San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases [illegible] Strictures [illegible] all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc. Skin Diseases [illegible] years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are the [illegible] as the result of an excess [illegible] in [illegible] indulgences of many rum [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. [illegible] Let patients [illegible] attention to those who are suffering with any of these [illegible] destroying [illegible] that they are cured [illegible] Send them [illegible] who has made pretensions [illegible] and who is certain to cure them [illegible] cases without mercury [illegible] It is important to those who are afflicted [illegible] the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors [illegible] their skill in curing all diseases [illegible] by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe [illegible] therefore and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions [illegible] effects of self abuse. This solitary vice [illegible] indulged in is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory heat flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath cough consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use. Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who will hogue swear to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco [illegible] other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it [illegible] will find their former [illegible] Look at the Directory for 1863 [illegible] The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus [illegible] certificates, pretended patients' letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

- CONSULTATION IN ALL CASES FREE
- CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY REQUIRED
- IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so unlovely a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may aspire [illegible] but the desire to point out to those who [illegible] guish and decay the true cause of their [illegible] great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. [illegible] tended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness [illegible] none but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following [illegible] Weakness of the back and limbs [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power, nervousness, [illegible] cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head [illegible] of consumption, short breath, flushings of the face, [illegible] to society, confusion of the mind, loss of [illegible] nightly emissions, colorless slight discharges upon least excitement, trembling, palpitation of the [illegible] regular appetite, variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the above symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider; the present is the golden moment in which you may [illegible] health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even in the slightest degree, you have the seeds of weakness in your system and their undermining influence will sooner or later dash the fair edifice of your [illegible] to the ground, leaving you a helpless object being. It is a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain or Di[illegible] [illegible] he sinks into a general debility that soon adds to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal Weakness.

See to the best form and languishing steps, the [illegible] victim of the fascinating vice. Mark the course of destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye. Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms [illegible] first it is easily shaken off but it grows eventually into great disinclination to pursue his regular business; the mind becomes apprehensive and restless nights [illegible] days of depression.

It is the nature of the complaint to cause changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your [illegible] prospects and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the patient, unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] surely fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible] Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid and degenerate. This is true to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored.

The afflicted are assured of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated show a record unsurpassed by any in the world, and the success that has invariably attended the course of treatment

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for but actually dangerous, for it is a well established medical principle that these [illegible] by entering the blood ruin the constitution and life.

The Doctor will in care in recent cases, in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long standing without affecting the patient with such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion or oblige him to neglect his business, whether indoors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.
